ENGLISH - BHARAT IS MY HOME

Chapter 2 | Objective Questions | Class 12 | Test Date: 2026-10-16 | Maximum Time: 120 minutes

Section A — Objective Questions (MCQs)

1. Who wrote the prose lesson ‘Bharat Is My Home’?
(A) Dr. S. Radhakrishnan (B) Dr. Zakir Husain (C) Mahatma Gandhi (D) Rabindranath Tagore

2. ‘Bharat Is My Home’ is an extract from a:
(A) travel diary (B) speech (C) short story (D) play

3. In which year did Dr. Zakir Husain become President of India?
(A) 1962 (B) 1957 (C) 1969 (D) 1967

4. Before becoming President, Dr. Husain had served as Governor of:
(A) Madhya Pradesh (B) Bengal (C) Uttar Pradesh (D) Bihar

5. Where was Dr. Zakir Husain born, according to the chapter introduction?
(A) Patna (B) Delhi (C) Hyderabad (D) Lucknow

6. The chapter introduction describes Dr. Husain as an eminent:
(A) scientist (B) painter (C) sportsperson (D) educationist

7. The speech was delivered after Dr. Husain took the oath as:
(A) Prime Minister (B) Governor (C) Chief Justice (D) President

8. Dr. Husain pledged himself to serve the totality of India’s:
(A) trade (B) culture (C) industries (D) military

9. How does Dr. Husain describe the trust placed in him?
(A) He is indifferent to it.
(B) He is surprised by its absence.
(C) He is overwhelmed by it.
(D) He considers it unimportant.

10. The people elected Dr. Husain to the highest office in the:
(A) court (B) land (C) school (D) village

11. Who was the predecessor praised by Dr. Husain in the speech?
(A) Dr. Rajendra Prasad (B) Mahatma Gandhi (C) Jawaharlal Nehru (D) Dr. Radhakrishnan

12. The word ‘erudition’ in the chapter means great:
(A) wealth (B) learning (C) strength (D) speed

13. Dr. Radhakrishnan had a wealth of experience devoted to the pursuit of:
(A) power and fame (B) trade and profit (C) knowledge and truth (D) travel and adventure

14. Dr. Radhakrishnan had faith in the essential humanity of:
(A) man (B) markets (C) governments (D) machines

15. Dr. Radhakrishnan championed the right of all people to live with dignity and:
(A) authority (B) competition (C) justice (D) luxury

16. Dr. Husain entered the presidential office with prayerful humility and total:
(A) ceremony (B) authority (C) ambition (D) dedication

17. Dr. Husain had taken an oath of loyalty to the Constitution of:
(A) the United Nations (B) India (C) the university (D) Bihar

18. The Constitution is described as belonging to a comparatively new:
(A) State (B) school (C) family (D) village

19. India is called the young State of an ancient:
(A) army (B) people (C) industry (D) government

20. The free citizens had given the Constitution to themselves for the first time in:
(A) the election (B) the speech (C) the lesson (D) history

21. India’s diverse ethnic elements have worked together through long:
(A) school terms (B) millennia (C) centuries of war (D) elections

22. The people strove to realise timeless, absolute:
(A) orders (B) profits (C) boundaries (D) values

23. According to the speech, a value may become inadequate when the circle of circumstance:
(A) is forgotten (B) changes (C) is measured (D) disappears

24. Even when a particular realisation changes, the value remains eternally:
(A) valid (B) easy (C) new (D) popular

25. The past is described as alive and:
(A) finished (B) dynamic (C) silent (D) unchanging

26. The past helps determine the quality of our:
(A) present (B) elections (C) buildings (D) weather

27. The past also influences the prospects of our:
(A) weekend (B) journey (C) future (D) classroom

28. The process of constant renewal is also the growth of national culture and national:
(A) income (B) population (C) territory (D) character

29. According to Dr. Husain, the growth of national culture is the business of:
(A) the army (B) trade (C) education (D) entertainment

30. Education is called a prime instrument of national:
(A) wealth (B) competition (C) punishment (D) purpose

31. Dr. Husain’s long association was with the education of his:
(A) family only (B) neighbours only (C) people (D) teachers only

32. He pledges loyalty to the country irrespective of religion or:
(A) age (B) income (C) language (D) occupation

33. He pledges to work for the strength and progress of his:
(A) school (B) office (C) party (D) country

34. He promises to work for the welfare of the country’s:
(A) buildings (B) people (C) roads only (D) weapons

35. The speech rejects distinctions based on caste, colour or:
(A) creed (B) climate (C) region (D) profession

36. In the speech, the whole of Bharat is Dr. Husain’s:
(A) journey (B) home (C) office (D) school

37. He calls the people of Bharat his:
(A) opponents (B) family (C) employees (D) guests

38. For a certain time, the people chose him as the head of this:
(A) family (B) court (C) army (D) class

39. Dr. Husain’s earnest endeavour is to make the home strong and:
(A) beautiful (B) small (C) silent (D) private

40. He hopes for a life that is just, prosperous and:
(A) isolated (B) temporary (C) graceful (D) competitive

41. The family in the speech is constantly growing at a rather inconveniently fast:
(A) height (B) distance (C) pace (D) price

42. Each person should participate in building the family’s new:
(A) boundary (B) life (C) title (D) uniform

43. People are asked not to sit back and merely:
(A) celebrate (B) vote (C) watch (D) complain

44. The situation demands work, work and more:
(A) rest (B) speech (C) travel (D) work

45. The work should be silent and sincere, solid and:
(A) steady (B) showy (C) quick (D) temporary

46. Dr. Husain identifies two aspects of work: work on oneself and work for:
(A) office (B) society (C) fame (D) wealth

47. The two aspects of work are described as mutually:
(A) harmful (B) unrelated (C) fruitful (D) unequal

48. Work on oneself means following the urge towards moral:
(A) comfort (B) recognition (C) development (D) competition

49. The person's moral development is pursued under self-imposed:
(A) pressure (B) custom (C) punishment (D) discipline

50. Work on oneself aims to make a person free and:
(A) moral (B) powerful (C) wealthy (D) famous

51. The end-product of personal moral development is a free moral:
(A) personality (B) industry
(C) family (D) government

52. The end-product cannot sustain itself without seeking and exercising itself to benefit:
(A) one office (B) one family (C) one region (D) society

53. An individual cannot reach full perfection without progress in collective social:
(A) wealth (B) existence
(C) competition (D) authority

54. The two aspects of work should be pursued:
(A) reluctantly (B) whole-heartedly
(C) occasionally (D) separately

55. The dual effort gives the life of the State a special:
(A) uniform (B) price (C) shape (D) flavour

56. The State should be more than an organisation of:
(A) power (B) education (C) service (D) culture

57. Dr. Husain calls the State a moral:
(A) organisation (B) competition
(C) ceremony (D) market

58. The moral organisation is part of national temperament and:
(A) population (B) income
(C) geography (D) inheritance

59. The leader of the liberation movement named in the chapter is:
(A) Mahatma Gandhi (B) Bal Gangadhar Tilak
(C) Sardar Patel (D) Subhas Chandra Bose

60. According to the speech, power should be used only for:
(A) personal gain (B) revenge
(C) moral purposes (D) show

61. The peace of the strong is what people should dedicate themselves to:
(A) wait for (B) ignore
(C) argue against (D) work for

62. Dr. Husain has full faith in his:
(A) visitors (B) officials only
(C) people (D) opponents

63. He believes the people will bring forth the energy required for the satisfactory performance of the:
(A) dual task (B) ceremony
(C) election (D) single task

64. Contributing to the national work is described as his:
(A) punishment (B) burden
(C) privilege (D) obligation only

65. The national work is called an enchanting:
(A) enterprise (B) argument (C) journey (D) ceremony

66. In 'prayerful humility', the word 'humility' means:
(A) anger (B) pride (C) speed (D) modesty

67. In the chapter glossary, 'pledge' as a verb means to:
(A) forget (B) compare (C) borrow (D) swear

68. 'Presumption' is an idea that is taken to be:
(A) difficult (B) ancient (C) true (D) beautiful

69. 'Endeavour' means an earnest:
(A) opinion (B) attempt (C) reward (D) promise

70. 'Unsparingly' means without having:
(A) mercy (B) experience (C) purpose (D) discipline

71. 'Peril' means serious and immediate:
(A) learning (B) danger (C) renewal (D) progress

72. 'Approximation' means coming near but not:
(A) exactly (B) silently (C) morally (D) carefully

73. 'Requisite' means required or:
(A) ancient (B) graceful (C) necessary (D) dynamic

74. 'Ethnic' in the chapter means:
(A) economic or political (B) racial or cultural
(C) moral or spiritual (D) personal or private

75. The word 'ceased' means:
(A) began (B) stopped (C) promised (D) served

76. 'Champion' used as a verb means to:
(A) delay (B) measure (C) support (D) oppose

77. 'Creed' in the phrase 'caste, colour or creed' refers to a:
(A) religious belief (B) place of birth
(C) family name (D) school subject

78. 'Totality' most nearly means:
(A) a fixed time (B) a small part
(C) a single group (D) the whole

79. The phrase 'bring forth' means to:
(A) produce (B) turn around
(C) look after (D) put away

80. The phrase 'pursuit of knowledge' refers to:
(A) sharing wealth (B) avoiding knowledge
(C) seeking knowledge (D) teaching discipline

81. The noun 'renewal' is formed from 'new' with the prefix 're-' and suffix:
(A) -ful (B) -ment (C) -ness (D) -al

82. Which prefix appears in the word 'inadequate'?
(A) in- (B) pre- (C) re- (D) un-

83. Which suffix appears in 'constantly'?
(A) -al (B) -ly (C) -ment (D) -ness

84. In 'myself', the word 'self' is combined with:
(A) our (B) my (C) their (D) him

85. Which adjective completes the phrase 'a _____ State'?
(A) special (B) prayerful (C) dual (D) new

86. Which adjective completes the phrase 'a _____ effort'?
(A) long (B) dual (C) new (D) prayerful

87. Which word completes the phrase 'prayerful _____'?
(A) association (B) humility
(C) State (D) effort

88. Which modal auxiliary appears in 'I must confess'?
(A) must (B) should (C) may (D) can

89. Which modal auxiliary appears in 'I can only assure you'?
(A) can (B) must (C) ought (D) will

90. In 'I must confess that I am overwhelmed', the word 'that' introduces a:
(A) question (B) command (C) clause (D) greeting

91. In 'the people have chosen to make me the head', 'have chosen' is in the:
(A) present perfect tense (B) simple past tense
(C) past perfect tense (D) simple future tense

92. In 'the past is not dead and static', the word 'static' means:
(A) unimportant (B) incomplete
(C) unchanging (D) uncertain

93. The chapter's opening classroom activity says charity begins:
(A) at school (B) in the market
(C) in the office (D) at home

94. The chapter's discussion activity describes individuals and families as:
(A) self-sufficient (B) identical
(C) interdependent (D) unrelated

95. The speech links a nation's quality to the quality of its:
(A) ceremonies (B) exports (C) buildings (D) education

96. The chapter's central image treats the people of India as members of:
(A) different armies (B) one school
(C) one family (D) separate offices

97. Which pair best captures the work Dr. Husain asks people to do?
(A) Personal and social work
(B) Private and military work
(C) Rural and foreign work
(D) Political and commercial work

98. What attitude does Dr. Husain express towards his people?
(A) Fear (B) Open distrust
(C) Full faith (D) Indifference

99. Which quality should guide the use of power in the State?
(A) Morality (B) Popularity (C) Force (D) Profit

100. What does Dr. Husain hope the people's effort will help build?
(A) A stronger army alone
(B) A larger office
(C) A private family estate
(D) A just and prosperous life